Pursuant to A.R.S. § 41-1030:

...B. An agency shall not base a licensing decision in whole or in part on a licensing requirement or condition that is not specifically authorized by statute, rule or state tribal gaming compact. A general grant of authority in statute does not constitute a basis for imposing a licensing requirement or condition unless a rule is made pursuant to that general grant of authority that specifically authorizes the requirement or condition.

...D. This section may be enforced in a private civil action and relief may be awarded against the state. The court may award reasonable attorney fees, damages and all fees associated with the license application to a party that prevails in an action against the state for a violation of this section.

E. A state employee may not intentionally or knowingly violate this section. A violation of this section is cause for disciplinary action or dismissal pursuant to the agency's adopted personnel policy.

F. This section does not abrogate the immunity provided by section 12-820.01 or 12-820.02.

INSTRUCTIONS

Type or print an answer to every question. Do not leave any spaces blank. If a question does not apply to you, mark the space with 'None'. Do not use N/A. If you do not have enough space, continue writing your answers on page 10 or use a separate sheet. Be sure to mark each answer with the same number as the question. Answer each question with complete and truthful answers and do not leave any information out. Information on the application form will be reviewed and verified. You must place your initials in the lower left hand corner of each page to indicate that you have correctly answered each question on that page. If you do not understand a question, or need help completing the form, please call the Arizona Department of Gaming.

The following information is required for all applicants. If any answer is 'Yes', please attach a written explanation to this form. Please note, any convictions you believe were expunded must be disclosed on this form and have a written statement attached. A set of fingerprint cards must also be returned with this renewal form to start the review process.

Under the Federal Privacy Act, disclosure of social security numbers is voluntary unless a statute specifically requires it or allows states to collect the number. In this instance, disclosure of your social security number is mandatory pursuant to Title 42 United States Code, Sections 405(c)(2)(c), and Sections 653, 654, and 666; and A.R.S. § 25-320(K) in order to aid the Department of Economic Security in locating non-custodial parents or the assets of non-custodial parents.

Criminal History Record Information Disclosure of Privacy Requirements

Your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI.

The use of the FBI criminal history record information will be used to assist in the determination of suitability for the issuance of State Licensing or Licensing for employment in, or providing goods or services to the Arizona Gaming Industry.

You may request procedures for obtaining a copy of your record for a change, correction, or updating of an FBI criminal history record as set forth in Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Section 16.30 through 16.34. Information on how to review and challenge your FBI criminal history record can be found at www.fbi.gov. If requested you will be given thirty (30) days to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information.

To obtain a copy of your Arizona criminal history in order to review/update/correct the record, you can contact the Arizona Department of Public Safety Criminal History Records Unit at (602) 223-2222 to obtain a fingerprint card and a Review and Challenge Packet. Information on the review and challenge process can be found at the DPS website (www.azdps.gov).

Criminal history record information is solely for the purpose stated and cannot be disseminated outside the Department of Gaming, or other authorized entity.

You may retain a copy of this signed disclosure if desired.

NONCRIMINAL JUSTICE APPLICANT'S PRIVACY RIGHTS

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for employment or a license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below. All notices must be provided to you in writing.¹ These obligations are pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, Title 5, United States Code (U.S.C.) Section 552a, and Title 28 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), 50.12, among other authorities.

- You must be provided an adequate written FBI Privacy Act Statement (dated 2013 or later) when you submit your fingerprints and associated personal information. This Privacy Act Statement must explain the authority for collecting your fingerprints and associated information and whether your fingerprints and associated information will be searched, shared, or retained.²
- You must be advised in writing of the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or update of your FBI criminal history record as set forth at 28 CFR 16.34.
- You must be provided the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in your FBI criminal history record (if you have such a record).
- If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the employment, license, or other benefit based on information in the FBI criminal history record.
- If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks and https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks and https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks and https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks and https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks and
- If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI by submitting a request via https://www.edo.cjis.gov. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.)
- You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.³
