A Strong Start to 2022 – Arizona Eclipses Half a Billion Wagers in January

PHOENIX – Arizona set a new gaming record in January when more than half a billion dollars were bet on event wagering & fantasy sports, according to a new report by the Arizona Department of Gaming.

“With over half a billion dollars wagered in January, it is clear that Arizona has become a top ten event wagering market nationally,” said Ted Vogt, Director, ADG. “A big thank you to Arizona Department of Gaming Staff and event wagering & fantasy sports stakeholders, whose work has contributed to the strong start in the state.”

Arizona operators accepted over $560 million dollars in wagers during the month of January, resulting in approximately $1.7 million dollars in privilege fees contributed to the state. You can view the full reports on the ADG website: LINK.
