Arizona Department of Gaming Reports June Sports Betting Figures

PHOENIX – Bettors in Arizona wagered nearly $319 million during the month of June, according to a new report by the Arizona Department of Gaming.

“Despite June being a historically slower month for sports betting, Arizona’s figures were strong nationally,” said Ted Vogt, Director, ADG. “Arizona operators contributed over $750 thousand in privilege fees during June, resulting in nearly $17 million in privilege fees since the start of legal operations in September 2021.”

The state continues to see a robust sports betting market. Arizona ranked 6th nationally in total handle during the month of June, with $318.8 million wagers placed throughout the state. You can view the full June event wagering report on the ADG website: LINK.
