Arizona Clears $1.2 Billion in Total Event Wagering Handle in Less Than Three Months After Going Live

PHOENIX – The Arizona Department of Gaming released the event wagering and fantasy sports revenue reports for the month of November today. Through the first three months of operations, Arizona has had over $1.2 billion dollars in wagers, highlighting the strong start to the event wagering and fantasy sports market in the state.

“Arizona has exceeded expectations and is already a top ten market nationally,” said Ted Vogt, Director, ADG. “Revenue from these new games is strong and will only get stronger as the market develops.”

Arizona operators accepted over $466 million dollars in wagers during the month of November, resulting in approximately $3.2 million dollars in privilege fees contributed to the state. You can view the full reports on the ADG website: LINK.
